GM BRIEF IN OPPOSITION TO DEVEX CROSS-PETITION FOR CERTIORARI

The two questions presented by Plaintiffs' Cross-Petition, filed on April 7, are subject to the same fatal defects as their initial Petition, No. 81-1718, filed on March 17. They depend upon facts which either have no record support, or have been rejected by the master and both Courts below. And Plaintiffs' urged this Court to accept their assumed facts and ignored the numerous contrary fact findings of the master which have been considered and approved by each of the Courts below.

The legal and factual fallacies inbedded in Plaintiffs' initial Petition are fully discussed in our Brief in Opposition. The discussion is equally applicable to the recent Cross-Petition. Any further discussion would serve no useful purpose.

The Cross-Petition should be denied.
